

After three weeks of cultural, fun and educational activities, Formentera Intercultural, a project of the Office of Social Welfare of the Consell de Formentera, is culminating with two days of literature and theatre. Tuesday at 8.00pm in the Casa del Poble, Ibrahim Bah will present his book "Tres días en la arena", an account of his migratory journey, and share with attendees a videotaped performance.

The programme ends Wednesday 5 April with the play "El Rey del Gurugú" and a final colloquium with Bah in the Sala de Cultura (Cinema). The first session, at 11.00am, is for pupils at IES Marc Ferrer and the second, at 8.00pm, for the general public.
