

«Ver el verso» is a culling of work by Ana Celada currently open to the public at the exhibition space of the Ajuntament de Sant Francesc. The series of acrylic compositions showcases the artist's two passions: painting and poetry. Ms Celada, who has called Formentera home for just under a year, finds her inspiration locally. Indeed, the protagonist in each of her four large format paintings is a familiar sight: a jellyfish. The exhibition will close on 24 October, but until then it can be visited Monday through Friday from 10 am to 2 pm and 5 pm to 7:30 pm.
