

The Office of Youth Affairs of the Consell de Formentera is pleased to announce the activities organised at the Casal de Joves during the month of April. "Once again the programme is tailored to Casal youth", said Vanessa Parellada, youth affairs councillor, highlighting activities like "a workshop to prepare a first curriculum, as well as Sant Jordi celebrations with the spotlight on poetry".

Tomorrow, Wednesday 5 April, the youth drop-in centre will host an activity in connection with the 20th Beni Trutmann photo contest. "We will encourage young people to take smart-phone snapshots that they can present as submissions to the youth category of the contest", added Parellada. Another highly anticipated event is "Anime", a workshop on traditional and computer-enhanced illustrations of Japanese origin on Saturday 8 April.

Movie nights (sofa and popcorn included) will continue certain Wednesday afternoons, a table football tournament is scheduled Friday the 14th, a taco cooking workshop Saturday the 15th, a resume-building workshop Wednesday the 19th and a karaoke night Friday the 21st.

Diada de Sant Jordi

Saturday the 22st, for the feast day of Saint George (Diada de Sant Jordi), youth will prepare postcards with poems. Wednesday the 26th the Youth Council (

Consell de la Infància i Joventut

) will be held. The last weekend of the month will come with workshops on mirror engraving and jump rope. The Casal de Joves is for children ten and up and is open Tuesday to Saturday, 4.00pm to 10.00pm all year long.
